

MARY HELP of CHRISTIANS ACADEMY

Educating and Empowering Young Women Since 1941

Mary Help of Christians Academy, a private Catholic all-girls college preparatory high school in North Haledon, New Jersey, anticipates several employment opportunities to meet the needs of our growing student population. Administered by the Salesian Sisters of St. John Bosco in partnership with a faculty and staff of talented educators, the Academy offers its students a holistic education rooted in the Salesian principles of reason, religion, and loving kindness. As our enrollment continues to grow, the following teaching opportunities are anticipated for the 2018-2019 school year in the areas of:

Mathematics

Physical Education

Science

Social Sciences

World Languages

Teachers must hold current NJ Certification or meet the requirements for certification by the State of New Jersey (9-12). Qualified candidates are asked to email their resume to principal@maryhelp.org.
